THE KIDDUSH & SHALOSH SEUDOS CLUBS

Ever wonder how those non-sponsored Kiddushes and Shalosh Seudos meals get paid for? Although it doesn't look like a lot of food, it does cost us at least $100.00 as week to put on the non-sponsored Kiddush for over 150 people and at least $75.00 for a non-sponsored Shalosh Seudos.

It is through the generosity of the members of the Kiddush Club and the Shalosh Seudos clubs that the costs are covered.

STAY THE COURSE

By Rabbi Sender Haber

The Jewish people complained to Moshe that they had no water and Hashem told Moshe Rabbeinu to speak to a rock. Moshe, we are told, did not do exactly as he was commanded, rather than speaking to the rock, he hit the rock.

Why didn't Moshe speak to the rock as commanded? After all, Hashem had said 'vedibartem el haselah' "speak to the rock"?

Rashi explains that Moshe did try speaking to the rock. He spoke to the rock in front of all of those complaining Israelites – but nothing happened. Moshe had to reconsider. This was an awful moment. The Jews were complaining and threatening to go back to Mitzrayim. He was trying to convince them otherwise, and it wasn't working.

Moshe decided that when Hashem said to speak to the rock he had meant to speak with it in rock language. After all, you can't have an effect on a rock by speaking to it. He took his staff – which Hashem had told him to bring – and hit the nearest rock. Sure enough, water came out.

Imagine that you are trying to get soda out of a soda machine. You put in your money but nothing comes out. You might start by calling the number on the machine and davening softly, but eventually you will just give in and kick the machine. We all do it.

Rav Elimelech Resnick of the Mir Yeshiva explains that Moshe Rabbeinu should never have given in. Hashem said, "I am punishing you because you did not believe in Me, to sanctify Me". Moshe should have stuck with the word of G-d.

Sometimes we get discouraged and frustrated, even embarrassed. We need to think of Moshe talking to the rock with all of the Jewish people grumbling. We have mitzvos and words of wisdom that have come from Hashem, changed the world and withstood the test of time.

On Succos we ask Hashem to send us rain in the merit of Moshe who hit the rock and found water. Although it wasn't done properly it did work and we ask that Moshe's merit stand by us forever.

We need to remember not to lose faith and to remain strong in following the ways of Hashem.
